

Thank you for your recent reservation with African Flying Safaris. In an effort to provide the highest level of service, we strongly recommend the purchase of travel insurance. It is always necessary to review the terms and conditions regarding cancellation policies of all entities participating in your package arrangements with African Flying Safaris. While no one travel insurance company can cover all circumstances, African Flying Safaris, through its host travel agency Frosch International Travel, offers its clients access to several reputable travel insurance companies. Please read the policy carefully and should you have any questions, please call the insurance company directly for clarification since they have the final word on what is covered by a claim.

Understand that regardless of form of payment or amount, African Flying Safaris through its host travel agency Frosch International Travel is acting solely as the insurance companies agent and will not be held financially liable for the failure of a supplier to refund monies or services, not limited to but including weather, labor problems, mechanical issues, terrorism, diseases, political unrest, governmental rulings, acts of war, careless action, or cessation of services and any other unforeseen circumstances.
